

Loop Game Rubric

Parts

Attributes

- the title summarizes the content of the game
- date of game's origin is displayed
- subject area and grade level are indicated
- all fields of author information are complete
- capital letters are used only where necessary
- abbreviations are avoided

questions

- remain focused on content defined by the title
- cover topic completely
- concise, complete sentences
- reflect various levels of thinking
- capital letters are used only where necessary
- question marks are used as end punctuation
- quantity of questions allows for adequate practice with each topic (approximately 20-40)

answers

- each answer matches only one question
- similar answers offered to provoke analysis and decision making
- capital letters used only where necessary
- correct end punctuation

card layout

- size of cards appropriate for grade level
- large, easy to read fonts
- text fits on every card, including the title card