Gifted Education Programming Standards

Standard 1: Learning and Development: Educators, recognizing the learning and developmental differences of students with gifts and talents, promote ongoing self-understanding, awareness of their needs, and cognitive and affective growth of these students in school, home and community settings to ensure specific student outcomes.

Standard 2: Assessment: Assessments provide information about identification, learning progress and outcomes, and evaluation of programming for students with gifts and talents in all domains.
Standard 3: Curriculum Planning and Instruction: Educators apply the theory and research-based models of curriculum and instruction related to students with gifts and talents and respond to their needs by planning, selecting, adapting and creating culturally-relevant curriculum, and by using a repertoire of evidence-based instructional strategies to ensure specific student outcomes.

Standard 4: Learning Environments: Learning environments foster personal and social responsibility, multicultural competence, and interpersonal and technical communication skills for leadership in the 21st century to ensure specific student outcomes.
Standard 5: Programming: Educators are aware of empirical evidence regarding (a) the cognitive, creative and affective development of learners with gifts and talents, and (b) programming that meets their concomitant needs. Educators use this expertise systematically and collaboratively to develop, implement and effectively manage comprehensive services for students with a variety of gifts and talents to ensure specific student outcomes.
Gifted Education Programming Standards

(Concluded)

Standard 6: Professional Development: All educators (administrators, teachers, counselors and other instructional support staff) build their knowledge and skills using the NAGC-CEC Teacher Standards for Gifted and Talented Education and the National Staff Development Standards. They formally assess professional development needs related to the standards, develop and monitor plans, systematically engage in training to meet the identified needs and demonstrate mastery of standard. They access resources to provide for release time, funding for continuing education and substitute support. These practices are judged through the assessment of relevant student outcomes.
Standard 1: Learning and Development

1.1 Self-understanding: Students with gifts and talents demonstrate with respect to their interests, strengths, identities and needs in socio-emotional development and in intellectual, academic, creative, leadership and artistic domains.

1.2 Self-understanding: Students with gifts and talents possess a developmentally-appropriate understanding of how they learn and grow; they recognize the influences of their beliefs, traditions and values on their learning and behavior.
1.3 Self-understanding: Students with gifts and talents demonstrate understanding of and respected for similarities and differences between themselves and their peer group and others in the general population.

1.4 Awareness of Needs: Students with gifts and talents access resources from the community to support cognitive and affective needs, including social interactions with others having similar interests and abilities or experiences, including same-age peers and mentors or experts.
Standard 1: Learning and Development

1.5 Awareness of Needs: Students’ families and communities understand similarities and differences with respect to the development and characteristics of advanced and typical learners and support students with gifts and talents’ needs [sic].

1.6 Cognitive and Affective Growth: Students with gifts and talents benefit from meaningful and challenging learning activities addressing their unique characteristics and needs.
Standard 1: Learning and Development

(Concluded)

1.7 Cognitive and Affective Growth: Students with gifts and talents recognize their preferred approaches to learning and expand their repertoire.

1.8 Cognitive and Affective Growth: Students with gifts and talents identify future career goals that match their talents and abilities and resources needed to meet those goals (e.g., higher education opportunities, mentors, financial support.)
Standard 2: Assessment

2.1 Identification: All students in grades PK-12 have equal access to a comprehensive assessment system that allows them to demonstrate diverse characteristics and behaviors that are associated with giftedness.

2.2 Identification: Each student reveals his or her exceptionalities or potential through assessment evidence so that appropriate instructional accommodations and modifications can be provided.
2.3 Identification: Students with identified needs represent diverse backgrounds and reflect the total student population of the district.

2.4 Learning Progress and Outcomes: Students with gifts and talents demonstrate advanced and complex learning as a result of using multiple, appropriate and ongoing assessments.
Standard 2: Assessment

(Concluded)

2.5 Evaluation of Programming: Students identified with gifts and talents demonstrate important learning progress as a result of programming and services.

2.6 Evaluation of Programming: Students identified with gifts and talents have increased access and they show significant learning progress as a result of improving components of gifted education programming.
Standard 3: Curriculum Planning and Instruction

3.1 Curriculum Planning: Students with gifts and talents demonstrate growth commensurate with aptitude during the school year.

3.2 Talent Development: Students with gifts and talents become more competent in multiple talent areas and across dimensions of learning.
